

Patient presents with complaint of lower back pain following motor vehicle collision.

Patient was restrained driver in rear-end collision at approx 35mph. Airbag deployed.

Patient reports immediate onset of pain radiating to left leg. Denies loss of consciousness.

PMH: hypertension, controlled on lisinopril 10mg daily.

Vitals: BP 142/88, HR 96, RR 18, SpO2 98%, Temp 98.6F.

Physical exam: tenderness to palpation L4-L5 region. Positive straight leg raise left > right.

Neuro: sensation intact bilaterally, motor 5/5 all extremities, reflexes 2+.

Assessment: Acute lumbar strain with radiculopathy. Rule out lumbar disc herniation.

Plan: CT lumbar spine without contrast. Toradol 30mg IM given. Flexeril 10mg prescribed.

Discharge instructions: follow up with primary care in 3-5 days. Return to ER if worsening.

Return to work: off work for 5 days pending follow-up.